Vineyard

Rains finally stopped and the ground has dried up. Now we can cultivate the rows and get rid of the stubborn weeds. We will then follow up with the hedger and leaf removal prior to the harvest.

Sand Castle Building

The Castle got a facelift and final coat of the stucco was applied. It looks great! The final touch will be done after the front door installation. Projected July 20th reality August 24th. Air-conditioning is working so good that every one prefers the inside tasting. We got the township tent permit so as soon as we cool down the tent is going up. Just in time for Harvest.

Sand Castle Cellar Sampler

Come and enjoy! The young wines of 2005 will be tasted along with the regular portfolio 2000 white and 2002 reds. For the first time we will taste the 2005 Gewurtzaminer (not for sale just a tease) Looking forward to celebrate with you.

Booking of Holiday Parties

For those of you who would like to celebrate the holidays in the castle please book early so that we may accommodate you for your preferred date and time.

Changing of the Guards

Lubo and Matt are leaving the first week in August and John will be leaving the first week in September. We will miss them! We welcome the new recruits from the same Slovak Wine Institute. They will be here in the middle of August.
