Vineyard

The rains took their toll, especially on the chardonnay. Fortunately, the week before harvest, the cold nights and dry sunny days provided excellent ripening conditions for the remaining grapes for the 2006 vintage.

Sand Castle Building

We are working diligently toward our partial occupancy permit so we can accommodate parties inside the castle, hopefully as soon as October.

First Crush Festival

Saturday Sept. 16th Come from 11 am to 1 pm . Help us pick the grapes, crush them and enjoy the freshly squeezed juice. For those of you who have joined us in the past and experienced this great fun, be sure to tell your friends.

Sunday Sept. 17th We will have a free boomba concert from 1-3 pm. Bring your cameras and take pictures with the famous Boombadears!

Additions to the Sand Castle Family

We welcome Stephanie Driver to our family. She has joined us as our marketing and sales manager. She is open to your input and comments. Feel free to contact her at:
