See the Future - Go back in Time!

Our first tasting of Sand Castle's archive wines was a real learning experience, not only for the participants but also for us.

While we have enjoyed the smoothness of the years aging in the bottle, we also find differences in the year's weather conditions and the deepness of the roots. You can really appreciate the complexity and the depth of more recent vintages due to the larger root system.

The next in our "Back in Time Wine Tasting" series will be Cabernet Sauvignon 2006 - 1988. Please make your reservations early. Looking forward to seeing you!

Saturday, August 14, 2010 @ 1pm

$20.00 per person

* Wine will be accompanied by select cheeses.

The Winery

Bottling, cleaning and checking everything for harvest, you realize that the year just went by. We are looking forward to our new harvest from this hot dry season.

Our cellar was selected as a perfect place to shoot a scene for the new film "The Cellar", based on the classic Edgar Allan Poe short story "The Cask of Amontillado."

The Great Pennsylvania Wine Toast

Saturday, August 14, 2010

4pm

On Saturday, August 14th at 4:00 pm, Pennsylvania wineries will attempt to make the new Guinness Book Record for the largest wine toast ever conducted. Please join us as we will toast with Sand Castle archive wines from 1992 (Great Vintage).

The cost is $10.00 per person, half of which will be donated to the local fire house and the glass is your memento to a probable world record.

We need you to make this happen, please bring your friends, relatives and neighbors. It will be great fun and a chance to set a world record!

The Vineyards

It started with the April heat and every bud popped out two weeks early, and it pretty much stayed that way all season. Pinot Noir is fully colored and we are moving towards harvest in about two weeks. Looks like we will be lucky again. The cooler temperatures at night are producing morning fog, so desired for Pinot Noir ripening.
